

Tools for Transformation:

Creativity, Spirituality and Social Change

author/artist/activist

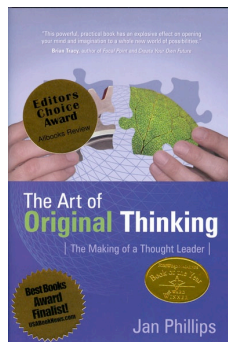

Jan Phillips

We are on the verge of a new era, an epochal shift from the Age of Information to an Age of Transformation. Each of us is a co-creator, a carrier of the new consciousness. The future is within us, like the oak in the acorn, and it is unfolding in the creation of our lives, our stories, and all our artistic expressions. Like caterpillars dying to the old ways, we are readying ourselves for a quantum leap in the evolutionary journey.

Using music, images and poetry, Jan Phillips creates an environment in which you tap into your own wisdom, clarify your soul's mission, and commit to a life that's joyful, purposeful and meaningful.

- Connect the dots between creativity, spirituality and inspired action
- Experience the alchemy of transforming your life experience into creations that can heal yourself and others
- Discover ways to co-create a culture of compassion
- Learn how to transcend dualities and experience the joy of true communion

"Jan Phillips is one of the world's premier evolutionary thought leaders. Her down-to-earth style coupled with her brilliant ability to speak with wisdom and clarity allowed me to open to possibilities I never imagined. Jan is a visionary who with grace, ease and delight helps all attendees discover unique gifts and talents." Catherine Roma, PhD, President, Roma & Associates
